- d. They are responsible for determining appropriate levels of remuneration of Executive Directors and have to play prime role in appointing, Directors and in succession planning;
- e. They are supposed to keep governance and compliance with the applicable legislation and regulations under review and the conformity of Company's practices to accepted norms.

3. Remuneration:

Independent Directors are entitled to Sitting Fees for every meeting of the Board/ Committee of Board. The amount of sitting fess shall be as decided by the Board from time to time.

4. Conflict of Interest:

It is accepted and acknowledged that independent Directors may have business interests other than those of the Company. As a condition of their appointment commencing, they are required to declare any such Directorships, appointments and interests to the Board in writing in the prescribed form at the time of the appointment.

In the event that circumstances seem likely to change and might give rise to a conflict of interest or, when applicable, circumstances that might lead the Board to revise its judgment on the independence of the Director, this should be disclosed to both the Chairman and the Secretary by the Director.

5. Confidentiality:

All information acquired during appointment is confidential to the Company and should not be released, either during the appointment or following termination (by whatever means) to third parties without prior clearance from the Chairman unless required by law or by the rules of any regulatory body.

6. Evaluation:

The Company has adopted a policy on Board Evaluation. The Remuneration policy provides for evaluation of the Board, the Committees of the Board and individual Directors. As per the Policy, the Company will carry out an evaluation of the performance of the Board as a whole, Board Committees and Directors on an annual basis. The appointment and re appointment of independent Director on the Board shall be subject to the outcome of the yearly evaluation process.

7. Disclosure of Interest:

Independent Directors shall disclose any material interest that they may have in any transaction or arrangement that the Company has entered into. Such interest should be disclosed no later than when the transaction or arrangement comes up at a Board meeting so that the minutes may record the interest appropriately. A general notice of interest in any contracts with a particular person, firm or Company is acceptable.

8. Termination:

Independent Director may resign from his position at any time on serving a reasonable written notice on the Board.

Continuation of the appointment is contingent on his getting re-elected by the shareholders in accordance with provisions of Companies Act, 2013 and the Articles of Association of the Company, from time to time in force.

Appointment of Independent Director may also be terminated in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association of the Company from time to time in force.
